Why work for us?

The Goat Shed Farm Shop & Kitchen is part of Fielding Cottage Ltd, a forward thinking business based in Honingham, Norfolk. Our passion is sharing the very best our county has to provide, from the local produce sold in our Farm Shop, the holiday accommodation we offer, or the artisan cheese we have been making by hand on our farm since 2009.

In February 2021 we opened the doors to our brand new Farm Shop & Kitchen. The Opportunity has now arisen for a front of house staff to join our team and help to bring alive our exciting new kitchen.

You will support the Kitchen staff to deliver great service and a quality customer experience.

Our ideal candidate will be enthusiastic with an excellent eye for details with the ability to work within a team and independently, with a flair for customer service

We pride ourselves on our team, strongly believing that the success of our business is founded within every single one of our team members, focusing on harnessing the natural talent of all our team to bring out the very best in everyone.

A successful applicant will have a can-do attitude, pride in their service and the ability to work at a fast pace within a team.
