Why work for us?

Fielding Cottage Ltd is a forward thinking business based in Honingham, Norfolk. Our passion is sharing the very best our county has to provide, from the local produce sold in our farm shop & kitchen, The Goat Shed, the holiday accommodation we offer, or the artisan cheese we have been making by hand on our farm since 2009.

We pride ourselves on our team, strongly believing that the success of our business is founded within every single one of our team members, focusing on harnessing the natural talent of all our team to bring out the very best in everyone.

Due to the growth of the business we are now looking for someone to join our friendly kitchen team and assist in the day to day running of the kitchen.

A successful applicant will be able to demonstrate the following and more:

- Previous kitchen experience is preferred but not essential, training will be provided.
- The ability to work within a team, and independently
- Great communication skills
- A smart personal manner
- Positive, can do approach.
- Food hygiene level 2 desirable

Your role:

- Take charge and run a section independently
- Work as part of the Kitchen team to ensure dishes produced are high quality and delivered on time.
- Measure dish ingredients and portion sizes in line with recipe specifications
- Assist with set up, preparations and cleaning tasks
- Maintain a clean and hygienic kitchen environment at all times and complete kitchen documentation as required.
- Assist with all general kitchen duties.

What we offer:

- Free parking
- 28 days holiday pro-rata inclusive of bank holidays
- Staff discount in our Shop & Kitchen
- The opportunity to work for an exciting, growing business
- Goats on site!

Interested in joining us?

Please email a covering letter, detailing why you are right for the job to sales@fieldingcottage.co.uk together with your CV.

Closing date: 09:00 16th August 2021. We will consider applications as and when we receive them and will be asking applications to join us for a trial shift.
