

The Goat Shed is recruiting!

Farm Shop Assistant

We have an exciting opportunity to join The Goat Shed! We're recruiting for a new Farm Shop Assistant, working 4 days each week including weekends (but only daytime hours between 8am – 6pm).

We're looking for candidates with previous experience working in a shop, and with a can-do attitude ready to help other areas of the business as needed. Fielding Cottage started out as a goat's cheese business, and in the past 18 months we've developed to include a Farm Shop offering local artisan produce, and a Kitchen where you can try the food in-house.

As we grow to meet demand – we need more people to join our happy herd. We're passionate about the wonderful array of artisan produce found in Norfolk, and we hope to find a candidate who shares our passion.

We'll look forward to hearing from you, and hope you'll join us on this journey!

Why work for us?

The Goat Shed Farm Shop is part of Fielding Cottage Ltd, a forward-thinking business based in Honingham, Norfolk. We pride ourselves on our team, strongly believing that the success of our business is founded within every single one of our members, focusing on harnessing the natural talent of all our team to bring out the very best in everyone. As a growing business there are also growing opportunities, to learn new skills and try out new tasks.
